"PROPOSAL-WRITING."

Circular dated 28th January 1949.

To

The Agents of the Life Branch:—

No. 214. In spite of several instructions and circulars to Agents in the matter of filling up the proposal forms, etc., before they are finally presented to the examining Medical Officer, it is found that many Agents are still unmindful of this aspect. As a result, a number of proposals with numerous deficiencies are being received in the office leading to unnecessary correspondence and much delay. Moreover, the number of cases pending due to such deficiencies is mounting from quarter to quarter, which fact is not quite a happy one. The Agents are hereby requested to carefully go through the proposal papers and see that they are complete and intact before they are handed over to the Examining Medical Officers. They should also satisfy themselves that all the information required to consider the proposals has been furnished.

It may be noted that if many incomplete proposals are received under any particular agency the Department will be forced to take a stringent view of the matter and treat such cases as "Independent" or take such action as the Department deems fit.

It is earnestly hoped that none of the Agents will cause such a measure to be adopted by the Department.
